FOR PRESIDENT:
WINFIELD SCOTT HANCOCK,
of Pennsylvania.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT:
W. H. ENGLISH,
of Indiana.

Work and vote for Hancock and English.

The population of the United States is little less than fifty millions.

The Democrats are at last united in Virginia, which will give us the State in November next.

Dr. Turner, worried through his forty days fast, is rapidly recovering. Most people set him down as a hambug.

INDIANA is now the great point of interest in the political world. The Republicans are moving on it in their strongest column.

A return has been made to establish a new voting precinct in this county, at Jordan, the new district to be made up of portions of the Hickman and Cayce precincts.

For these have been indications of a return of yellow fever at Memphis. Her escape is doubtless owing to the perfect sewerage introduced since the last epidemic.

Our anxiety makes as terribly doubtful whether Indiana, the Republicans are making a hot campaign, and the Democrats some how or fight ing with the old time vim.

Mr. Shewer, who is a fat money apostle, is passing the hat around for dollar subscriptions for election expenses. Why don't we make the dollars?—Public Ledger.

If Fulton county Democrats don't rose up and "boom" for Hancock, now the local elections are passed, we shall be tempted to send for some prominent Republican to come down and "cuss" us all.

TENNESSEE is now a few Greenback voters in Fulton, Hickman and Graves counties. Will some one tell us what they are now fighting for, and what they hope to accomplish. Every vote they poll in Kentucky only lessens the Democratic majority.

The people of Nashville are just now interested in the alighted question, three having recently been seen in Cumberland river at that point. One was killed. He weighed twenty pounds and measured four feet and 10 inches from head to tail.

Our Kentucky State Guard has had a grand encampment at Crab Orchard spring's which cost the State $15,000, but there being no money in the treasury for such purposes the Governor is at a loss to know how to pay for the grand display.

The news from Illinois regarding the campaign continues to be encouraging. We have received assurances from those who have in all sorts of that State that she will cast her vote for the Democratic State ticket, and also for the National ticket.

Large numbers of colored men voted the Democratic ticket in Alabama, Monday. They have found out at last that it is to their interest to cut loose from the Republicans element that has so made fools of them, without any adequate compensation for their support.

COL. HENRY WALKER, of Massachusetts, Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, writes the National Democratic Committee: "Our rival State Committee have met and joined in the fight to the very end; nothing has been done by any who believe in Garfield's success, the army to be distributed as follows:

$100,000 to Hancock carries Connecticut, $100 that Hancock carries New Jersey, $100 that Hancock carries Indiana, $100 that Hancock carries New York, $100 that he will carry all the above bets, and $1,000 that Hancock will be elected.

All offers to be accepted or none.

The Hickman Courier says the New York Sun is for Senator for Governor of Kentucky. It is reported that he is related to the son of Whose arrival was not marked an event upon the calendar.

Don't believe we said it, but if we do, and you don't stop making such flings, you'll find your glorious suns made a winter of discontent by a 180 pound son—in the shape of a fighting editor!

PADUCAH, the metropolis of the greatest of Democracies, has been captured by the Republicans, and the district is represented by a man who will accept the terms upon which he will accept a nomination for the Presidency. He is a man who dictates to the Democratic party the terms upon which he will accept a nomination for the Presidency. He is a man who has known what he was about when he made the purchase.—"Boiling Green Intelligencer."

The convention Democrats have the challenge square in their face to put forward a nominee, but they seem loth to respond. The rank and file have responded a convention nominee, so far as the public is concerned. The public seems to be that the aspirants are not anxious to tackle Turner. Turner has made a good member of Congress, is a good Democrat, and gained strength since the last election. A convention might allow him to hold his steady discipline and much more modest measure.

The Republican conference has announced in the world that the Southern States of itself, but we propose to carry the North and South. But the point is, that the world would have had the courage to do so far from the time of the last election.

The Republican conference has announced in the world that the Southern States of itself, but we propose to carry the North and South. But the point is, that the world would have had the courage to do so far from the time of the last election.

The plan of the Republicans seems plain thus announced is to waste no time, money, or exertion upon the 1880 electoral votes of the South. Hancock, and to make their fight as exclusively in the North—a solid North against a solid South. The Democrats would meet them on their announced programme, and throw all their power in an effort to carry every Southern State, leaving the Southern States se safely alone. The Republicans will be the first to fight fair, but the Democrats can carry New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio, Indiana, New Jersey, Connecticut, California, Colorado, and Oregon, or at least can carry most of them.

Borders Discharged.
Owego, N.Y., Aug. 19.—The supposed borderers had a preliminary examination to-day, and were discharged.

The Thing Explained.
(Athens Constitution.)

It is not easy to stop going to Congress when a man gets in the habit of it. It is like smoking a cigarette. You want to smoke the more you want to smoke.

Caves of Kilimaw Faver.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Capt. E. G. Harris, his first mate, John Steider, Steider W. Brown, secy. James T. Thompson, and Capt. J. C. P. Peck, from the steamer Aspinwall, Capt. Peck, Saturday, to the Pecker Wharf at quarantine.

Fast Mail on the Mississippi.

Captain John H. Baldwin has written a letter to the Pittsburg Dispatch.

He says: "I am sending you the fast mail packet line, a daily line, fast freight, and passenger packets and a large consignment of four thousand boxes of express per day each. This will involve an output of $700,000, all of which will be provided for, and the different lines will be completed and running in a year."

A Georgia Horror.

A doctor in the city of Walker county, Ga., dated August 10, says: "Last evening Womans L. Guanella, a widow, living twenty miles west of here, left home to visit a sick neighbor. Returning on 10 o'clock in the evening, she found her husband, Mr. Guanella, in a condition as comatose as with Thurner, Gladstone, and Gambetta he is like the combined littleness of Atkinson, Spencer, and Patterson. But Mr. Guanella, having a thin physique, was Carlyle said of the author of a great novel: "Those to whom he is great man, who all intelligent think he is a great man."—Atlanta Journal.

How Indians are Mixed in Maine.

(Maine Letter to the Philadelphia Press.)

Investigation proves, however, that a vast majority of the Federal officers in the Indian country are not up to the present Republican management.

It is readily stated as a fact that the Indian agent, who is in the recognized friend of the Democratic cause, for congress in the first district, as against Mr. Reed, the Republican. Other equally ignorant cases could be cited to show that the Federal agents have been used in this State to cripple the Republican organization.

Best Whisky.

Markets.

The receipts here are not large, but still some consideration will come in all the time. We quote also 50c/50c, medium 70c/50c, common 60c/50c.

Corn is low. We quote choice white for milling purposes at 36c; yellow 35c per bushel.

Apples as yet not much use of quaking.
